ABSTRACT

Tsushima Shuuji was born in Aomori prefecture, Kitatsugaru district on June 19th, 1909. His father, a member of parliament in those prefecture. Born in worth family did not make Dazai have a blissful life. When he was in high school he attempted his first suicide. In 1933 Ressha, his first work was published and it won the literature competition in Too Nippo newspaper. He used Dazai Osamu as pseudonym in this competition and continued to use it until he died on June 1948. Ningen Shikkaku is his last novel before he committed suicide with his lover, Tomie. Ningen Shikkaku is known as his autobiography work because the story is similar with Dazai’s real life story.

In that novel there is a lot of conflict between Yozo (the main character name) and him self. Yozo always said that he was scared of society and those kind of fear is known as SAD (Social Anxiety Disorder). The purpose of this paper is to show alternative way of understanding Yozo’s conflict and the solution.

Keyword: Yozo, ningen shikkaku, ningen ga nigate, id, ego, super ego, anxiety.