Rahayu, Widya. Code-switching Used by Sule as Presenter of Ini Talk Show Program. A thesis submitted as partial fulfilment of the requirements for the Sarjana Degree of the English Department, Faculty of Humanities, Universitas Airlangga, Surabaya, 2015.

ABSTRACT

In every interaction, people usually choose different codes in different situation. In bilingualism, the phenomenon of code-switching is something usual that occurs in conversation. Code-switching occurs when conversants use two languages together to the extent that they change from one language to other in the course of a single utterance. By using qualitative method, this study was aimed to analyze the types of code-switching used by Sule as the presenter of Ini Talk Show program on Net TV. The writer also wants to know the reasons for doing code-switching. The writer analyzed three episodes available to be downloaded on YouTube. From the three episodes, the writer found that Sule used the types of code-switching based on the distinction which cause people doing code-switching: the situational and the metaphorical code-switching. There are also two kinds of code-switching based on the sentence order: Intra-sentential and inter-sentential code-switching. Intrasentential code-switching is switch within a single sentence. The reason of Sule does code-switching happen such as ethnic identity marker, express solidarity, express social status, add emphasis, and express feeling.
