ABSTRACT

This research will describe the depth of accountability and transparency in the financial management area in Blitar related to the implementation of e-government. With regard to the purpose of the study, the chosen location is Blitar District Government. The location was chosen because Blitar is one of the districts that have a good budget transparency and carried out online using advances in information technology.

This method used a qualitative descriptive study. Informants determination techniques used in this research is purposive. Researchers wanted to explore in depth information from people who really know the focus of research. The location was chosen in this study is the Department of Transportation, Communication and Information, Documentation and Information Management Officer (PPID) Blitar, Financial Management Board and the Regional Asset (BPKAD) Blitar, Blitar Parliament Secretariat, Budget Committee DPRD Blitar.

The process of implementation of the program planning to budgeting in Blitar District Government is still using manual systems. But in an effort budget accountability and transparency of the government's budget Blitar exploiting information technology through the application of e-government. Results from this study is the implementation of the accountability and transparency of government budgets in Blitar district has materialized. The realization of accountability can be seen from the government's efforts to publicize the implementation of the budgeting process and documentation Blitar District Government, but the results of budget accountability Blitar district of the CPC examination is Fair With Exception (WDP). Embodiment transparency of budget information in this study can be seen through the opening on the budget information provided by the Government of Blitar.

Keywords: Accountability, Transparency, Budgeting, E-Government.