ABSTRACT

Kedhung Rumeksa ri Wengi is a written text using Javanese language and alphabet. It is included in a script of Primbon Suku Tengger 07.192 M dan 07.194 M which is one of Mpu Tantular Museum collections in East Java. It is interesting to study this object since it contains religious sense of Islam although it came from a region which maintains Hindu-Budha belief. The indication of Islam religion is in the shape of metaphors of some prophet names and some Nabi Muhammad’s close-friends. The study aims to produce a text editing and find out the metaphoric meanings in this text.

This study used a single script method in a diplomatic text editing method. Metaphor in the text is examined based Paul Ricoeur’s metaphoric concept. The study concluded that metaphor in Kedhung Rumeksa ri Wengi is a text taught by the principle of manunggaling kawula Gusti.

Key words: Kedhung Rumeksa ri Wengi, mantra, metaphor
