Implementation regional autonomy and authority in the area of financial management becomes important. Budget becomes an important point in the implementation of regional development, in budget management has the principle of fairness and equity.

Good governance and clean government is a government that runs the principles: participation, openness, equality and accountability. The budget is an important variable in whether or not to move the building. Budget allocations to the discussion on the process of "political budget". Setting the budget both in terms of revenues and expenditures necessary to have control of the elements of society.

Qualitative research on budget politics, the study of the budget setting process in East Java in 2009-2011 produced a budget how the role of actors in the play budget politics to get the budget allocation. Relations between the executive and legislative budget in budget management producing actor-oriented interests

Key Words: Budget, good governance, political budget, budget actors.