

STRUGGLE FOR SELF ESTEEM
AS SEEN ON JOHN PROCTOR
IN ARTHUR MILLER'S THE CRUCIBLE

KL
Fis BE 66/97
Ref
A.

MILIK
DIPERUNTUKAN
PERPUSTAKAAN AIRLANGGA
SURABAYA

BY :

ARIF ROFII

079012976

ENGLISH DEPARTEMENT
FACULTY OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCES
AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY
1996/1997

Approved to be examined
Surabaya,

Thesis Advisor

Drs. Sumitro

NIP: 131459656

ENGLISH DEPARTEMENT
FACULTY OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCES
AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY
1996 / 1997

ABSTRACT

This thesis is dealing with a problem of human life which always appears in daily life. That is the self esteem of John Proctor in Arthur Miller's The Crucible. Self esteem is one of emotional condition which could be received by building up his name and reputation. Someone will struggle as much as he is able to defend his self esteem. The writer regard John Proctor to be in struggling his self esteem since he thinks that his life will be nothing without his self esteem.

This study discusses John proctor's struggle for his self esteem and explain the condition that leads him to the struggle. In order to analyze the analyze his struggle, the writer sees through the analysis of the major character of the play.

Through this study, the writer hopes to know proctor's self esteem, the condition that leads him to the struggle his self esteem, and also how he treats the struggle. John Proctor is a figure of a simple man who tries to be exist with his self esteem in his society. He tries to defend his self esteem toward his family, his friends, his society, and especially toward himself. And atlast, he is succesfull in his struggle by defending his principles till his death.

By understanding such knowledge the writer will get a valuable experiences which be able to help him in facing a problem deals with self esteem in real life.