

ABSTRAK

Opportunities industry infrastructure, both public and private sector is the main opportunities of the players in the industrial sector of construction. Currently, the Indonesian government has plans to build a massive infrastructure. Of the Road Map Plan 2010-2014 Public Reforms, Ministry of Public Works, which is part of the government to handle Indonesia's infrastructure development projects, is the State Budget (APBN) for the year 2010-2014 in the amount Rp.80,68 largest Trillion of the total infrastructure budget of Rp. 169.6 Trillion. PT. Brantas Abipraya (Persero), hereinafter referred Abipraya is one of the State Owned Enterprises (SOE) sector construction service providers. PT. Brantas Abipraya (Persero) requires substantial funds to fund projects that are or will be executed, the Company has guidelines in running the activities and work programs, all these things are in the Company's Long Term Plan (RJPP) PT. Brantas Abipraya (Persero), the target company's mission and vision are also embodied in nature RJPP, this study will try to evaluate the Company's Long Term Financial Plan which is owned by PT. Brantas Abipraya (Persero) With the aim to see whether the targets that have been made realistic with the conditions that exist today or not. The Company requires substantial funding to be able to fund projects that are or will be running, so the company asked to continue to grow and develop.

Keywords: Evaluation, Financial Plan, Growth, Funding