

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

During the internship, the writer found out that English was an important language. Nowadays, English becomes lingua franca. In Indonesia itself, English is as foreign language. The writer realizes that by mastering English, it will help her to communicate with people who do not speak the same local language.

After the internship, the writer gets new experience as a news staff. She had learned many things about journalism and has challenge herself in new work environment. She has learnt how to be a good journalist. Since English Business was the writer's major in English Diploma, there were some subjects that have helped her during her internship.

The writer was interested in journalism since she was in high school. By doing internship as a news staff at Sakti TV Madiun, she is able to experience a job field that she interested in. During the internship, as a news staff, she translated news in video and made it into a good lead-in and news packages as her main duties. For the additional duties, she made rundown, voice-over, and got some wardrobes. The writer chose Sakti TV Madiun for her internship because she was born in Madiun and it has become one of developing local television stations one of the developing local television stations in Madiun. The writer believes it has promising future and it is a good place to learn new things. Most of the staffs are young and the writer feels comfortable to work with them, because there is not big gap between them.

This local television station has given such an unforgettable memories and experience for the writer. The staffs are kind and easy going. They also have given lots of advices and guidance during the writer's internship. They have taught the writer new things and corrected the writer whenever she has made mistakes. The writer has also been able share her interest about journalism world with them. The writer is also offered to be a reporter at Sakti TV Madiun when she graduates. Sakti TV Madiun is highly suggested for students who want to have the experience to be become a journalist in Madiun.