

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

The writer did her internship from 23th January to 24th February in DJ FM Radio Surabaya. DJ FM Radio Surabaya was located at Jalan Citandui Number 12-14 Surabaya. The writer chose the radio to have an internship because she was interested in broadcasting media having programs in English. Then, the writer decided to apply for an internship at DJ FM radio to implement her English skill during the internship.

The writer worked under the Creative Announcer Division. A creative announcer is responsible for planning, branding, and reporting the programs. The writer worked eight hours per day starting from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. While doing her internship, the writer had some duties such as translating YouTube contents and adlibs, making news contents, and reporting some events.

After finishing her internship for four weeks, the writer got some experiences and values. First, the writer learned how to translate in some different segmentations so that it made her understand and choose the best words to produce a good translation. Second, the writer understood more about the implementation of translation methods which she had learned in her subject. Third, the writer also learned to make interesting contents in the creative company like radio, such as making unique news, making scripts for Dengerin Kisah and Keelie 101. Keelie 101 is a special segmentation which is conveyed in English so the writer had to make good writings in English. Fourth, the writer could know the marketing way to sell the service products of company especially in broadcasting world. The writer also experienced on reporting some events such as the movie premiere of London love Story 2 and Chocolate Chance, the charity dinner, and the program of Never Ending War Against Cancer. Last, the writer learned how to communicate with people with good ethics and attitude. Accordingly, the writer got many valuable experiences while doing her internship.

Doing her internship for a month, the writer had a criticism to the supervisor of DJ FM Surabaya. The supervisor gave less supervision and guidance to the writer. It really mattered because the writer had less experience in working environment . She was demanded to be a multitasking person and could work under pressure with the tight deadline. The writer suggested that the supervisor of DJ FM Radio Surabaya to empower and develop the competence of the internship students in order to make them improve their skills and knowledge based on their major. Another criticism is to create a working environment which encourages a good relation between the internship students and the internal management of DJ FM.

Despite the shortcomings, overall the writer argues that DJ FM Radio Surabaya is a suitable place to have an internship for English Diploma major. She suggests her junior to apply for their internship at DJ FM Surabaya. By having internship in DJ FM Radio Surabaya, the writer can apply and implement the theories from the subjects in English Diploma major and finally gain a lot of experiences.
