

ABSTRACT

The importance of copyright protection in this age of globalization is beyond doubt. The rapid development of information technology allows people to use creative products very easily, in example the usage of Song / Music. This is a great opportunity for Creators/owner of Related Rights to get benefits. The higher the number of User, Creator and Related Rights owner getting more difficult to collect royalties. The establishment of a Collective Management Organization (CMO) and the National Collective Management Organization (NCMO) aims to facilitate the Creator and Owner of the Related Rights in obtaining royalties for the use of his work. Over time, the number of Users and LMK increases, more complex issues arise. Legal protection for User Creation in Law No. 28 of 2014 of Copyright gives an implicit and limited base of protection.

In this research described the legal relationship of the parties in the collection of royalties, liability of each parties and legal protection for the User on the collection of royalties by NCMO and CMO.
