

dengan penjelasan pergeseran tatanan industri minyak secara global atau regional. Proses mengkolaborasikan penelitian ini yang berbasis studi Ekonomi Politik Internasional dengan studi Energi dan Transformasi Internasional juga menjadi tantangan dalam menjalankan penelitian ini. Selain itu, jangkauan waktu penelitian telah memberikan hambatan tersendiri karena memerlukan pengamatan secara menyeluruh dalam penetapannya. Kemudian, hambatan terakhir ialah keberadaan negara UEA kurang dapat diekspos media nasional. Sehingga selain dengan mengandalkan buku dan jurnal, penelitian dilakukan dengan mengandalkan media yang diterbitkan oleh negara lain dan sumber data yang diterbitkan kementerian.

Secara umum, penelitian mengenai industri minyak merupakan topik menarik untuk dapat dikaji oleh berbagai latar belakang bidang studi yang ada. Hal ini berkenaan dengan pembahasan topik industri minyak yang kaya akan berbagai fenomena didalamnya, dengan berbagai negara di dunia yang juga tidak terlepas dari adanya isu-isu terkait industri minyak, serta memiliki latar belakang permasalahan berbeda dan menarik untuk dibahas. Dalam penelitian ini yang menganalisis alasan dukungan pemerintah terhadap transformasi di bidang ekonomi yang terus berlangsung hingga saat ini. Sehingga, penelitian ini memberikan peluang penelitian lanjutan terkait industri minyak yang terus mengalami perkembangan dan transformasi ekonomi yang masih mengalami proses di dalamnya. Pada akhirnya, temuan penelitian mengenai dukungan pemerintah terhadap diversifikasi ekonomi melalui industri minyak, menunjukkan bahwa terdapat adanya kesesuaian antara hipotesis dan realitas akan fenomena yang dikaji melalui analisis data dan jangkauan penelitian yang telah ditetapkan.
