Hi Claudia,

Thanks for checking with us!

Yes., it would be better if we reconvert this. We will proceed with the attached version of the manuscript and share you the revised proofs.

Regards

Aboo

Hi Aboo,

we have a little with this article as the wrong manuscript file was from the submission site to the PTS.

Actually the author uploaded his currenta manuscript file not as „main document“, so unfortunately it was the wrong version in the proof.

The author author now inserted so many corrections that I wonder if it wouldn't better to re-convert the manuscript using the current manuscript file, see attachment.

What do you think would be better?

Thank you for your advice,

best, Claudia

Dear Claudia Hill,

Thank you for quick response for our proof correction.

In this approval, we make many corrections because the file that was sent was the first file we sent on October 23, 2019, NOT our revised file that was sent on March 23, 2020. But we are trying to correct it carefully.

Here, I attached the revision file we have sent on March 23, 2020 and file page proof edited today.

Thank you
