Dear Prof. Dr. Mas rahmah,

I am the Editor for Int. J. of Management Concepts and Philosophy and I have received a submission entitled: "A Posthuman Approach to Critical Business Ethics Semi_Legal Frameworks as Disciplinary Apparatus"

I invite you to review this submission, to assess the quality of the work and its suitability for publication.

The deadline for completion of the review is 13-Dec-2020.

You can view the article abstract here to check it is within your subject area:

This paper contributes to the philosophical approach of business ethics by inserting the current state of business ethics, which is captured by semi_legal casuistry and frameworks, and Karan Barad's posthuman theory known as 'new materialism', into a proposal for the study of business ethics. The merging of business ethics and posthuman theory results in a so-called 'posthuman approach to critical business ethics'. My proposition is that these semi_legal frameworks weaken the field of business ethics, or even make it disappear. In addition to descriptive, empirical, social_scientific business ethics, there is also philosophical, normative, critical business ethics. This paper is written in the belief that these two branches of business ethics are navel_gazing toward legal or semi_legal frameworks – such as self_regulation and alternative dispute resolution (ADR) – creating a discourse of utility and regulation, rather than a discourse of ethics.

I understand that you may have other commitments, and therefore would be grateful if you could let me know quickly whether you are able to assist with this peer review.
