ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, all praise to Allah SWT, the Most Merciful and the Most Beneficent, for all the endless blessings, kindness, and guidance during my research so that I could complete my study in university successfully.

Next, I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my academic advisor, Mrs. Anna Dewanti, for the assistance these past four years. Thank you for giving me advice regarding my academic stuff since the first day of university. In addition, I am deeply grateful to my thesis advisor, Mrs. Masitha Achmad Syukri, for the guidance during my thesis writing process. Thank you for allowing me to join your research.

Moreover, I would like to show my appreciation to my parents and other members of my family. I am lucky to have you for you never stop praying for me and supporting me during my university years.

My appreciation also extends to some amazing people in my life. To my dearest friend, Reece, who has been very patient with me, thank you for always giving me emotional support. The encouragement you give has helped me a lot. To my twin, Windi, a special thank you for always being there for me and listening to my rant even though they are not important. I am grateful for those hilarious inside jokes. To my innocent friend, Fifi, who has always been there for me, thank you for being very understanding and entertaining. I appreciate the support you have been giving. To my lovely friends, Silvi and Jack, I cannot thank you enough for being very supportive. My days would be colourless without you. To my wonderful friends, Devi, Intan, Nabilah, and Tryastika, thank you for all those sweet moments. Without you, my university years would have been nothing.

I also would like to thank all those people who have helped me in the process of writing this thesis whom I cannot mention one by one. I am extremely grateful.
