Dear Miss Wicaksana:

Your manuscript entitled "Transcending realism: International society and Indonesian foreign policy" which you submitted to The Pacific Review, has been reviewed. The reviewer comments are included at the bottom of this letter.

The reviewer(s) would like to see some revisions made to your manuscript before publication. Therefore, I invite you to respond to the reviewer(s)' comments and revise your manuscript.

When you revise your manuscript please highlight the changes you make in the manuscript by using the track changes mode in MS Word or by using bold or coloured text. Please upload two versions of the revised manuscript; one with the changes marked clearly (please designate as 'File not for review') and one with the changes made but without their being highlighted (please designate as 'Main Document'). This will allow your manuscript to be sent out for re-review whilst maintaining your anonymity.

To submit the revision, log into <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/rpre> and enter your Author Centre, where you will find your manuscript title listed under "Manuscripts with Decisions." Under "Actions," click on "Create a Revision." Your manuscript number has been appended to denote a revision. Please enter your responses to the comments made by the reviewer(s) in the space provided. You can use this space to document any changes you made to the original manuscript. Please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewer(s).

IMPORTANT: Your original files are available to you when you upload your revised manuscript. Please delete any redundant files before completing the submission.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to The Pacific Review, your revised manuscript should be uploaded as soon as possible. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision in a reasonable amount of time, we may have to consider your paper as a new submission.

Once again, thank you for submitting your manuscript to The Pacific Review and I look forward to receiving your revision.

Dear Sarah,

I just completed submission of my revised paper through the journal system. Can I please know whether I have done it correctly, since I could not see clearly some click bottoms, it may be caused by the high contrast formula in my vision disability software.

To be sure following your guidance, I resend you the files required. My response to the reviewers' feedback is also attached below.

I am happy to be able to finish revising my paper earlier than expected.

Hope that everything is going well with my revision.

Kind Regards

I Gede Wahyu Wicaksana

Dear Miss Wicaksana:

Ref: International society: the social dimensions of Indonesia's foreign policy

I'm happy to let you know that your paper has been conditionally accepted for publication in The Pacific Review. The conditions are as follows:

There are several English language issues which need to be addressed. Please submit the paper to another proofreading check.

Please submit new files and write a short accompanying note indicating the changes you have made.

To submit the revision, log into <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/rpre> and enter your Author Centre, where you will find your manuscript title listed under "Manuscripts with Decisions". Under "Actions", click on "Create a Revision". Your manuscript number has been appended to denote a revision. Please enter your responses to the comments made by the reviewer(s) in the space provided. You can use this space to document any changes you made to the original manuscript. Please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewer(s).

IMPORTANT: Your original files are available to you when you upload your revised manuscript. Please delete any redundant files before completing the submission.

Because we are trying to facilitate timely publication of manuscripts submitted to The Pacific Review, your revised manuscript should be uploaded as soon as possible. If it is not possible for you to submit your revision in a reasonable amount of time, we may have to consider your paper as a new submission.

Once again, thank you for submitting your manuscript to The Pacific Review and I look forward to receiving your revision.

Sincerely,

Dear Sherah,

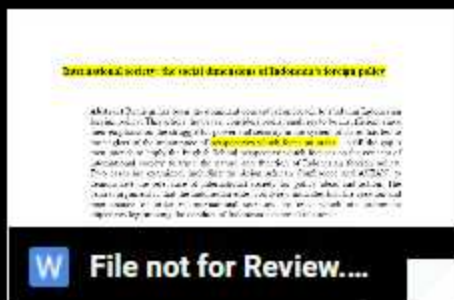

On 25 April I submitted my revised manuscript in two files; file not for review with highlighted revisions and main document without highlights. Could you please check whether I did it fine.

The following is the files in attachment for you to forward to the editor unless the previous are not sent properly.

Many thanks before

Wahyu

Body: 29-Apr-2015

Dear Dr Wicaksana:

Ref: International society: the social dimensions of Indonesia's foreign policy

Our referees have now considered your paper and have recommended publication in The Pacific Review. We are pleased to accept your paper in its current form which will now be in a queue waiting to be edited before being forwarded to the publisher for copy editing and typesetting. You will receive proofs for checking and instructions for transfer of copyright in due course.

Please note that given the popularity of The Pacific Review and the resulting average length of the publication queue, it is likely that you will receive the proofs for checking in 6-9 months.

Thank you for your contribution to The Pacific Review and we look forward to receiving further submissions from you.

Sincerely,
Dr Wells
Editorial Assistant, The Pacific Review
