DECLARATION

I declare that this undergraduate thesis submitted in partial fulfillment of the degree of Sarjana Humaniora (S.Hum) of the English Department Faculty of Humanities Universitas Airlangga is entirely my own work and has been solely the result of my own original research. Hereby, I confirm that:

1. This thesis is not copied from any other person's work (published or unpublished);
2. I do not use the services of any professional agencies to produce this thesis;
3. This work has not previously been submitted in whole or in part for a degree or any other qualification either at Universitas Airlangga or elsewhere.
4. Any texts, tables, figures, data or other materials copied from other sources (including, but not limited to, books, papers, and the internet) have been clearly acknowledged and referenced in the text. These details are also confirmed by a fuller reference at the end of the work.

I am fully aware that breaching any or all of the above points will result in the withdrawal of the awarded degree and disciplinary action in accordance with the regulations at Universitas Airlangga.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to show my sincerest gratitude to Allah SWT the Almighty for the good health, patient, and wellbeing that were necessary to complete this undergraduate thesis. This thesis has also benefited greatly from the support of many people, some of whom I would like to acknowledge here.

To begin with, I am deeply grateful to Dra. Anna Dewanti, Dipl. TESL., M. Pd., for offering me such an interesting topic of investigation. As the advisor for all my thesis work throughout this semester, she always guides me and gives me suggestion to complete this undergraduate thesis.

Then, I would like to express my gratitude to Diah Ariani Arimbi, S.S., M.A. Ph.D., who has been my academic advisor during my four years of college. She helped me to plan my study well during four years until I can finish it on time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all of the teachers and staffs of English Department faculty who have shared their expertise, sincere and valuable guidance throughout my study.

Furthermore, I would like to express my deep gratitude to my parents who always give me moral and financial support throughout my study. Finally, I would like to thank my dearest friends, Nimas, Amil, Maya, Amal, Willa, and all of my friends who have had been there for me during the writing process.
