Finally, but first in my heart, I am extremely grateful to my beloved aunt for love, prayers, and caring in my whole entire life. I gratituded her for replacing the role of my mother since I was child. I would not know what my life looked like if her sympathy did not exist. For me, she will always be my true mother. I know that there is no one thing could replace what she had done to me, but I will always try my best to fulfill her expectation in my future life.
