Dear Dr. Dwi Siswanta

Thank you for the chance in the publication of our manuscript.
I believe there are some errors on the online information of our in-press publication

As you can see on the site, <https://jurnal.ugm.ac.id/ijc/article/view/55047>, the corresponding author is Muhammad Fauzi while the true one is Esti Hendradi. Dr. Hendradi's name is also incorrectly typed. It is supposed to be Hendradi instead of Hendrari

Fortunately, these errors did not appear in the manuscript.
Would you mind revise the two parts I have mentioned?

Thank you in advance.

Dear Mr Muhammad Al Rizqi Dharma Fauzi,
After we checked, the errors in the appearance on the Web were based on the meta data inputted by the submitter. In OJS, the submitter will automatically be set as the corresponding author. In case the submitter and the corresponding author in the article are not the same, we will make adjustments when the article has been published. Because the editor still needs correspondence with the submitter, we will not adjust the position of the corresponding author until the article is officially published.
Regards

Dwi Siswanta

Dear Dr. Dwi Siswanta

Thank you for the help. If that is the case for the corresponding author, we are looking forward to checking the data later when our manuscript is published.

Best and Warm Regards
Al Rizqi
