ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to thank my parents for their continuous support. I am a proud bearer of the name “firstarianto”, the first child of Ibu Ari and Bapak Atok. For my little sister and little brother, Ema and Aiz, I love you two. I am very thankful for all of my relatives, my huge families, especially those that let me crash through their place in various stages of my education phrases. Even in the hard times of a pandemic, your supports never waver for this little girl. Thank you.

My deepest gratitude goes to the lecturers and staffs of the English Department, especially to Ibu Yulia Indarti S.S., M. A. as my thesis advisor and Pak Gesang Manggala N. P., S.S., S.A., M.Hum. as my academic advisor. Thank you for being wonderfully cooperative. I would not have achieved this dream without your tremendous help. I am also thankful for Ibu Retno Wulandari S., S.S., M. ITS., my TWD lecturers, who gave me many possible ideas for thesis topics. For Pak Pujo Sakti N. C., M. Hum., thank you for the guidance over the years in BPH EDSA. Also for Mas Ferry Fahmi, S.Pd., thanks for being one of the best admin I have ever met. Last but not least, for everyone that I could not mention one by one, it was my greatest honour to learn in this department.

As the title suggests, this thesis would not be possible without my friends’ help—the students of the English Department in various batches. SASING UNAIR 2017 is a home for some of the coolest people I know and love dearly. A-B peeps, xobat lingu, ambis, and all the groups that I lost count of, thank you for our college shenanigans. My sincere thanks for the batch 2018, 2019, and 2020, as these batches helped me collect the data I needed. I am very grateful for all the memories I made along the way. Especially for BPH EDSA that accepted me for who I am and believed in me to become the co-chief in the 2020 period. For the alumnae and DPO, for inkadivs, for the past and future batches, I hoped that we all would remember that EDSA was—and always will be—our home.
