Dear Yudi Her,

I'm pleased to let you know that your article: "Enhancement of EPC migration by high-dose lisinopril is superior compared to captopril and ramipril" has just been published on F1000Research.

The Peer Review Process

We are now inviting the reviewers you have suggested. As part of their reports, reviewers are asked to provide a recommendation of 'Approved', 'Approved with Reservations' or 'Not Approved', and their report will be published alongside the article with their full name and affiliation. You will be able to respond to any published reports with a comment and/or by publishing revisions as a new version of your article – we will send you instructions on how to proceed when you begin to receive reports.

It is important that authors do not contact the reviewers directly, as this could result in invalidating their report.

Please note that we will ask you for additional reviewer suggestions if the invited reviewers decline. In order to avoid any delays with the peer review of your article, please continue to check your Suggest Reviewers page for updates and respond to any email requests as soon as you can.

Linking Your Data

Now that your article has been published and assigned a DOI (10.12688/f1000research.26395.1) we would strongly recommend that you include this DOI in the metadata of any published dataset associated with this article. If you would like assistance with this, please contact our editorial team.

Increasing Discoverability

Now that your article has been published, why not take advantage of the tools we provide to help maximize your article's reach and share your article using the Email and Share options on the article page.

Your article will be listed in ePMC shortly as a preprint, and then updated once it has passed peer review.

Regards

Zena Nyakoojo
Senior Managing Editor, F1000Research

Please click here to download the PDF proof of your F1000Research article.

References "6 & 22" and "32 & 36" are similar to each other- please mark on the PDF if the repeated refs need to be replaced/deleted.

Please look through the article and let me know if it requires any corrections or if you are happy for it to be published as it is. Please also confirm the following details are correct:

- All author names are spelled correctly
- Authors are listed in the correct order
- Affiliations for all authors are accurate
- The information in the Copyright section is correct
- All figures and figure legends are correct
- All external files, including data files are correct
- All links within the article are working, and correct

Please note that connecting an ORCID account to F1000Research requires the account holder to sign in to both F1000Research and ORCID, therefore it isn't possible for us to add ORCID badges for your co-authors on their behalf. When the article is published, they will receive an email encouraging them to connect their ORCID account to F1000Research. If they do this, their ORCID badge will be displayed next to their name.

Corrections at this stage may require further typesetting and therefore cause some delays. If any corrections are necessary, please mark them directly on the PDF file using the commenting and markup tools in software such as Adobe Reader.

Please return your proof corrections to us via email - please note that after the article has been published, any requests for minor corrections will only be considered on a case-by-case basis. Therefore, we encourage you to check your proofs carefully at this stage.

If there are any outstanding queries on your reviewer suggestions, then we will be in touch with you shortly.

Best regards,

Mahnoor

Dear F1000 Team

Thank you very much for the email

We only have 3 correction

1. Last authors name should be Yusuf Azmi, not Yusuf Asmi
2. Reference no 22 can be replaced with reference no 6
3. Reference no 36 can be replaced with reference no 32

We also have paid the publication fees

Many thanks
Best Regards
Yudi

Dear Yudi,

Thank you for your email, I hope you are well – I'm afraid we cannot publish your article until we have received enough suitable peer reviewer suggestions. Our peer review team have emailed you previously regarding this, is it possible that it was caught in a spam filter?

We are unable to invite Dr Andriato as they appear to share an affiliation with some of the authors of this article – we could consider this a collaboration. We've also noticed that three of your suggested reviewers are affiliated with the same country – part of our Reviewer Criteria is that reviewer suggestions are global, in order to gain an international perspective on your article. Before we can proceed with publication we need for you to suggest at least 2 more reviewers from outside of Indonesia on your Suggest Reviewers page

Best regards,
