Dear Dr. Sosiawan

We are pleased to inform that your article entitled "Community empowerment program to elevate dental and oral health knowledge and toothbrushing habitual on mothers of subdistrict area" has been published in "Journal of International Oral Health". With this mail we are sending you the final PDF of the article for your personal use.

The internet today provides more opportunities than before to improve the visibility of your research work. There have been some studies to show direct correlation of article downloads to citations received. The journal's website and its bibliographic linking does help you to get readers, however, additional linking by you would help you to get even higher citations and research impact. You can use few (or all) of the online tools for this purpose.

1. If your institution has an open archive repository, you can put the PDF of your article in the archive with a link to the article on the journal's website <http://www.jioh.org/text.asp?2019/11/7/18/250908>. Check <http://www.eprints.org/openaccess/self-faq/#self-archiving> to learn more about archiving.
2. Deposit the article in a subject based OAI-PMH compliant repository. You can find subject wise list of repositories from <http://www.openoai.org/find.php> and <http://opcit.eprints.org/explorearchives.shtml#disciplinary>.
3. Link your paper from as many websites as possible using citation and social book marking tools such as GetCited, CiteULike, Connotea, Zotero, etc. The URLs for registering with few of these sites are <http://www.getcited.org/add/>
<http://www.citeulike.org/register>
<http://www.connotea.org/register>
<http://www.zotero.org/>
http://www.stumbleupon.com/sign_up.php?pre2=hp_join
4. Link the article from an appropriate topic in the Wikipedia e.g. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Acanthamoeba_keratitis#References [Ref. 5] or http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hallermann-Streiff_syndrome#References [Ref 4]
5. As an author you can also deposit your paper with the NLM's PubMedCentral, if you have received an NIH grant. Use the myNCBI link on <http://www.nihms.nih.gov/db/sub.cgi> to submit your paper.
6. Link the paper from your personal / institution web pages. Please use this <http://www.jioh.org/text.asp?2019/11/7/18/250908> for the linking.

Thank you for your contribution to our journal.

With personal regards
 Dr. Rushabh Dagli
