Kepada: uGr YudhBintoro <ugroseno@fk.unair.ac.id>

Dear Siprianus,

I am taking over care of this manuscript from David whilst he is away on holiday.

Thank you for sending over these revisions. There are just a couple comments that you still need to respond to before I can send this off to production. I have summarised these below.

- Please confirm that you received permission from all those mentioned in the Acknowledgments section to include their names and affiliations.
- Please clearly state (in the acknowledgements section) how each of those mentioned contributed to the manuscript.
- Please abbreviate all journal names in your references section as per the the Index Medicus/MEDLINE abbreviation approach. Please also ensure that Web links, URLs, and links are included as hyperlinks within the main body of the article, and not as references.

I have attached the most recent copy of your manuscript to this email for you to work from. Please send this back to me when you have made these last changes.

Many thanks,

Leoma
