BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

The writer is Talitha Salsabila. She was born 22 years ago in Surabaya, October 27th, 1999. She is the first daughter of Hardiono Setiawan and Iwing NuningKha. She has a younger brother named Reyhan Anargya, who is also a student in Faculty of Vocational majoring in Diploma III Accounting 2020.

Talitha was a student of SDN Ketabang III Surabaya for 2 years and she had to move out to Menganti and continue her study in SDN 1 Menganti, Gresik. She hated English at that time. She never did her English homework and chose to clean the school's toilet rather than finished her homework. After that, she went to Sunan Giri Islamic School for her junior high and this time she loved English so much. She joined English competitions and got the runner up twice in a year. She went to SMAN 1 Menganti and she had to move out again in sophomore. She continued her senior high in SMAN 1 Sidoarjo.

After graduated from Senior High School, she had to have one year gap because she could not passed the SBMPTN. She prepared herself by joined an English course in English First Sidoarjo for 6 months before she enrolled to Universitas Airlangga. She chose English and Hospitality Management as her major's choices and she accepted in one of those which are English. During her study, she joined as committee for several EDSO events and as a staff of the legislative committee for the Association of Legislative Student 2018-2019.
