ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillahrabbi'lamin, all praises to Allah...

First and foremost, I would like to thank my parents, Masturi, S.Pd. and Kholisoh, M.Pd., for their continuous supports and unconditional love. I am very thankful for your hard work and sacrifices made to give me this meaningful life. Thank you for everything you have taught me, all of those knowledge and life lessons along the way. Thank you very much also for letting me chooses whatever I want to be, for I would not be existed here if it is not because of you. I love you, you both are the love of my life, Bapak and Ibu. Not to mention, my dearest twin brother, my love-hate relationship, Eky. The one who always encourages me whenever I feel down or unmotivated to finish my thesis. Your uncountable helps and constant motivations will always be remembered.

The following sincere gratitude is addressed to my thesis advisor, Ema Fauzia, S.S., M.Hum. Thank you very much, Ma'am, for your tremendous help and nonstop assistance poured in this thesis. Your broad knowledge has opened my eyes into a new, exciting world upon me. Thank you for your patience and kindness and lasty, thank you for correcting my mistaken ideas and concepts. Salimah, S.S., M.Ed., my academic advisor, is also not missed to be mentioned in this letter of thankful. Thank you very much for being wonderfully cooperative, caring, and warmhearted whenever I have problems in regards to my never ending amazing, crazy, beautiful, memorable, and for sure exhausted undergraduate journey. Your patience and availability in assisting me overcome my difficulties have taught me that being human is given. But keeping our humanity is a choice.

I would also like to thank my beloved college friends who came to me on the very first day of school in studying at English Language and Literature, Universitas Airlangga. To my mazhab syahida group members: Jasmin, Nadia, Naufal, and Fasya, thank you for giving me one of best college friendships, I could ever ask for. Thank you for our time together, for those hard assignment days, the cheesy jokes we have shared until now, and most importantly for your support along the way.

A special shout out to Magna and Rama, those who invites me to join “Rise and Shine” team. Being dumb, young, broke, wild, and free college kids is not fun without you guys. Thank you for being 24/7 accessible support system. Thank you for listening my rock bottom stories and weird ideas. Your unconditional love and uncountable warm hugs will always be remembered. Being your friend means a lot to me and gives me an unforgettable experience as a person. Thank you for being the best amigos I could ask for.

In addition to that, a humble thank you to Davit, Harry, Rizky, Milen, Tio and Anas. My best buddies who always be there to have some talks, share funny stories into laugh, and unskippable gossips. Your vibes bring me into myself again in any conditions. I will not forget how we used to spend our leisure time together to cook some new recipes, play UNO, hunt for delicious foods around Surabaya, and unforgettable sleepover. You guys have taught me that when the world is so complicated, friendship is the simplest gift within all of our hands. May our roots will always be tangled. I am glad that I meet you guys.

I would also extend many thanks to my beloved fellas during my student exchange program at Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. Atras, an undergraduate management student at Universitas Islam Sultan Agung, my roommate back then and of course the best roommate I could ask for; Affan, a fresh graduate of international business at the school of business management at Institut Teknologi Bandung, the very first friend who approaches me first at dorm while he is looking for a broom to clean his room; Lee Min Woo, an undergraduate student of the international program of mechanical engineering at JeonBuk National University South Korea, our oppa who introduces us to many Korean unique cultures; Anita, an undergraduate student of Economics at Universitas Indonesia, the funniest girl who always knows how to break the ice whenever the circumstances get harder; Andea, an undergraduate student of International Program for Islamic Economics and Finance at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta, the sweetest one among the others; and Raisa, an undergraduate student of Economics at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta, the one who never forgets to let us informed with her most updated with the recent gossips. Thank you very much guys for filling my demotivated time during the way I finish this thesis. Your encouragement, silly jokes, funny stories, and most importantly beautiful memories that we have created in Malaysia will become unforgettable reminiscences to share in the future.

To Mas Aik and Bu Nuke, my hero in supporting me to keep physically and mentally healthy until now. Thousands thanks and praises I send to you for all of your never-ending moral supports. I hope that everything you have fought for to me or everyone else will be paid in near future and after life. Once again, thank you very much for being the hero and front liners to those who strive to survive in this beautiful world.

Special thanks to my dearest friend, the sapo tahu seafood to my hot steaming rice, koko-koko Rungkut to my one and only male vocalist, the one whom I oftentimes called Jordan. Thank you so much. I am very grateful for all the things that you have done for me, your helps, supports, surprises, and most of all the advices and times which make me happy and grow mature. It all goes above and beyond what any person deserves. With lots of love from my heart, thank you.

Last but not certainly least, thank you very much I will grant it to myself. The one who always knows how to keep striving even if it is impossible to get in through. I am beyond proud to myself for everything that I have been struggling and striving for along the way until I reach this stepping stone even though yet there are still many to count on. Keep believing in yourself because you are the one and only who knows who you are. Do not push yourself too hard on everything you have faced, I know you have done your best to come this far. May the spirits and eagerness possessed during my life experiences will always be burning.

Your truly,

Kragan, 21st of June 2021
