Thank you very much for your gallery proof
I truly appreciate it and Apologize for the later responded due to some important deadlines in this recent weeks

Attached below is the pdf which I already put the comment.
Majority of the revision is about the figures. some of the items are misplaced, stretched or some unnecessary box appeared

Also, the most important thing is changing the author arrangement, the 1s author should be I Gde Rurus, 2nd author is Andrianto, 3rd Author is Raras and 4th Author is Makhyar Jibril

Attached below is the pdf with comment and revised file which i have submitted and can be used as references for the corrections of the figures.

Best Regards

Only one correction left. The $p < 0.001$ should have no dotted box outline in figure 4 and 5. The box should be invisible since it only help to position the $p < 0.001$
