We have reached a decision regarding your submission to The Journal of Infection in Developing Countries, "SEVERE COVID-19 INFECTION IN A KIDNEY TRANSPLANT RECIPIENT SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH LOPINAVIR/RITONAVIR AND HYDROXYCHLOROQUINE: SEVERE COVID-19 INFECTION IN A KIDNEY TRANSPLANT RECIPIENT".

Our decision is to: reevaluate your paper after revision.

Dear author

You must follow of the journal rules for case presentation: number of coauthors, number of words and references.

The last are out of journal rules.

I sending some advices from our reviewers.

Reviewers Comments

The authors present clinical characteristics and management of a liver transplanted patient admitted with SARS-CoV-2 infection in the given manuscript. Given the nature of the SARS-CoV-2 epidemic, it is paramount to report such management of cases in special populations before large clinical trials become available. The
