Dear Editor

We are so thankful that our work entitled "The impact of glutaraldehyde on the characteristics of bovine hydroxyapatite-gelatin based bone scaffold as gentamicin delivery system" is published in a vigorous journal as Journal of Basic and Clinical Physiology and Pharmacology. However, I am as the corresponding author, can not find the full published version on the submission system (Scholar One Manuscript) and degruyter.com through my accounts. I am very glad if the editor could provide me with the full published version. Thank you very much for your kind help.

Kind regards,
Aniek Setiya Budiati
