Dear Andrianto

Thank you for submitting a new version of your article:

Case Report: Complete heart block as a manifestation of cardiac metastasis of oral cancer

Andrianto Andrianto et al.

WHAT WE DO NEXT

We will check your submission to make sure we have all the files and information we need and will be in touch in the next two to three working days. You will receive a final proof of your article for approval, prior to publication. At that point, we usually contact the reviewers who reviewed the previous version of the article for any further comments or changes to the status they originally awarded your article.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO NEXT

Nothing, just relax and we will be in touch shortly. Don't forget you can track the progress of your article via My Research >> My Submissions.

Please bear in mind that it is possible the reviewers of your previous version might not be available to review this version. If this is the case and further reviews are required, we will be in touch to discuss the best way to proceed, which may involve asking for further reviewer suggestions.

Please quote the article number 26438 in any correspondence.

Kind regards

The F1000Research Team

Dear Jennifer,

Thank you for your update regarding the peer-review process.

We have checked the journal and noticed that in the reviewer's status box, Radityo Prakoso, had given his review and comment.

We have suggested other several reviewers and re-invited Mohammad Saifur Rohman as he turned out to use a different email address.

Hopefully, the new suggested reviewers would respond to the invitation.

Dear Mohammed,

Case Report: Complete heart block as a manifestation of cardiac metastasis of oral cancer

I hope you're well – my colleague Jeniffer will be assisting you with the peer review process for your paper in F1000Research, but she is out of the office this week so I'll be happy to assist you on her behalf.

F1000Research operates an author-driven publication model. This means that you will be responsible for suggesting suitable reviewers, whom we invite on your behalf and whose peer review reports, names and affiliations will be published alongside your article.

Before we can publish your article, we will need suggestions for at least 5 reviewers who meet our criteria. Please visit Suggest Reviewers to add your suggestions and to access our short guide on tips for finding referees, which includes a full description of the suitability criteria. We recommend you suggest as many names as you can, as the more names suggested the higher the chances of getting your paper reviewed. Please also ensure that your reviewer suggestions are global (i.e. are based in institutions around the world) so that we can gain a global perspective on your article

We look forward to receiving your reviewer suggestions. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you need any assistance, we're happy to help.

Kind regards,

Yousuf

Dear Andrianto,

I'm pleased to let you know that your article: "Case Report: Complete heart block as a manifestation of cardiac metastasis of oral cancer" has just been published on F1000Research.

The Peer Review Process

We are now inviting the reviewers you have suggested. As part of their reports, reviewers are asked to provide a recommendation of 'Approved', 'Approved with Reservations' or 'Not Approved', and their report will be published alongside the article with their full name and affiliation. You will be able to respond to any published reports with a comment and/or by publishing revisions as a new version of your article – we will send you instructions on how to proceed when you begin to receive reports.

It is important that authors do not contact the reviewers directly, as this could result in invalidating their report.

Please note that we will ask you for additional reviewer suggestions if the invited reviewers decline. In order to avoid any delays with the peer review of your article, please continue to check your Suggest Reviewers page for updates and respond to any email requests as soon as you can.

Linking Your Data

Now that your article has been published and assigned a DOI (10.12688/f1000research.26438.1) we would strongly recommend that you include this DOI in the metadata of any published dataset associated with this article. If you would like assistance with this, please contact our editorial team.

Increasing Discoverability

Now that your article has been published, why not take advantage of the tools we provide to help maximize your article's reach and share your article using the Email and Share options on the article page.

Your article will be listed in ePMC shortly as a preprint, and then updated once it has passed peer review.
