Review A

The paper topic is within the scope of the conference:

Yes

The technical content of this paper offers significant novelty:

The novelty is subtle or not quite strong

Originality content: does this paper contain traces of plagiarism?:

NO. The paper is genuine and original

How is the clarity of the paper in regards of English usage?:

Understandable although some grammatical errors are found

How do you rate the paper?:

So-so

Please put your comment below::

The paper fits well with scope of conference.

The author shows the ability to elaborate the result with proper explanation.

However, the author should address the mistakes in English usage, in their full paper. The abstract should also be revised as well.

Can be invited for presentation in the conference
