She also would like to thank all who had taught her during her study in English Department.

To mother, thank you a lot, for being a great mother, for being the most understanding person, for every spirits and sacrifices this long time. To father, thank you, for being funny and understanding, for staying there and catchable whenever the writer needs. To “ibuk”, thank you so much, for the praying, the lovely memories, and unstoppable care.

Sorry for being weird, annoying, and a bit mad daughter.

To lovely friends indeed; Puput, Sari, Ayu, Atik, Shanti, Ajeng, Riza, Dina, Esti, Grace, Chairina, Evalyn, Dimas, Nanda, Dian, Anya, Ema, Tantri; thank you for the laughs, hugs, silly things, interesting experiences; for your help, understanding, and shoulder to cry on. Thank you, thank you, thank you for warm terms called: family.

To Gandhi Prasetya, thank you a thousand time for always opening that “store” 24/7 for the writer. For providing: laughs, cares, a ‘place to rest’, wiping tears, silly jokes, a lovely atmosphere. Thank you for being a yellow home.

And to all that cannot be mentioned one by one, thank you for completing the writer’s life. Just like Adele’s said: “I wish nothing but the best for you”
