Dear Dr. Yunias Setiawati,

Congratulations!!

Your manuscript titled

Neuroleptic Malignant Syndrome: A Review of Diagnosis and Treatment' submitted to The Journal of the Indian Society of Toxicology [JIST] been accepted for publication in the forthcoming Vol. 16 Issue 2 of the JIST 2020.

NOTE:

Please, remain advised that the JIST is a peer-reviewed (indexed & abstracted with MEDLINE/Index Medicus [through World Health Organisation (WHO) for SEAR countries], CAB Abstracts) non-profit making official journal of Indian Society of toxicology (IST) and publishes papers free-of-cost without asking for any payment from its members. Your publications with the JIST is made free-of-cost subject to the fulfillment/submission of the following information to the editor –

1. Kindly email me the life-membership details of ALL authors issued by the Indian Society of Toxicology (IST). The authors who are NOT life-members of IST need to pay the printing & processing fee of Rs.250/author.
2. In the case of multi-authored papers, those authors who are NOT life-members of IST are required to pay a nominal amount of printing & processing fee of Rs.250/author (for authors from India & SEAR Countries) or 5 USD/author (authors from rest of the world). In such a case, the corresponding author is requested to send the attached proof of payment to this email.
3. Fee-waiver is also applicable to those papers if the author is a registered reviewer of the Journal of Indian Society of Toxicology (JIST) & certified by the editor. In that case, please email us your certificate details/PUBLONS communications made to the reviewer's email (review@jist.org.in) - for waiving off the printing & processing fee of Rs.250/author.
4. The JIST is a bonafide member of Crossref with DOI (Digital Object Identifier) prefix (doi//10.31736/). Hence, your papers published with JIST will be authenticated & indexed by the CrossRef; thereby issuing a permanent DOI number to your paper for indexing. There is a nominal charge of Rs.200/article

(4 USD, for rest of world) towards tagging of DOI numbers (generation, validation, allotment, processing, and metadata storage at CrossRef) of individual papers. Hence, the authors are requested to remit Rs.200/article (for authors from India & SEAR Countries) or 4 USD/article (authors from the rest of the world) towards the DOI-tagging fee to the account of IST. Kindly attach the proof of payment transfer in your reply.

5. All authors, irrespective of the categories need to pay the DOI tagging fee of Rs.200/article.

6. The authors who are the members of IST or a recognized reviewer of JIST are entitled to receive an email copy of the Whole issue of the JIST absolutely free-of-cost. Only the soft copy of your published paper will be sent to the email of the corresponding author after the successful remittance of the fees (if applicable).

7. Payments: All payments are to be made only to the account of the Indian Society of Toxicology (Click for payment methods) and attach the detailed break-up of the payment proof in your reply email.

Print copies are NOT issued free and incur a subscription cost. Those who wish to receive print copies of the JIST please contact to Dr. V.V. Pillay, toxicology@aims.amrita.edu

Thanking you
Best wishes & regards
