Alhamdulillahirabbil'alamin, first of all I want to say my foremost gratitude to Allah SWT and the Prophet Muhammad (peace upon him) that has been the teacher for all mankind in the world. I also want to say my gratitude to Ms Dewi Meyrasyawati, SS.,M.A, M.Hum, for all the assistance and the guidance during the process of doing this thesis. Secondly, I want to say my enormous gratitude and loves to my parents, father's and mom's who always support me, give me spirit and never stop to help me in everything to finish this thesis. I also say my gratitude to my brother Doni Andhika Kusuma that always chin' me up. My best dedication is for my father, mother and brother.

I want to say apologize for my late beloved grandfather because of my lateness in finishing my thesis so that I am not able to prove my promise to take photograph together in my graduation party. At this moment, I also dedicate my bachelor graduation to him. I thank to his prayers, his advice, and his hopes that I am not able yet to make it all come true. Without his loves and affection for me, I am not able to stand up until this moment, the day of my graduation.

Lastly, I want to say my gratitude for all my best friends that always support me, they are Mentari Dwi Susanti, Vinka Avrilla, Widari Ayu Nastuti, Rezyta Fitriani and Novita Ida Agustine. They are the first I met when I officially enter Universitas Airlangga in 2010 as a new student. They always help me and give me best support. Thanks to all of you and English Literature 2010. I am not going to forget all of you guys and all of the memories that we have done from the beginning of study until we have made our different ways that we have chosen. All of the story about us is always be the most beautiful memory that later I will tell it to my children and even my grandchildren. EDSA is our home!
