

SYNOPSIS

15th July 1988, Emma and Dexter meet on the night of their graduation and spend their night together. From that moment, there are unpredictable moments toward their relationship in the next twenty years. One day, they only spend their time one day to fall in love, and tomorrow they must go their separate ways. They made a promise. Every year in the same date, they will come and share their story as a best-friend. Dexter, handsome, adorable and womanizer go spend his time by travelling in some places in order to get his ambition toward adventure. Meanwhile, beauty Emma is trapped in London, struggling and fighting against her problems. In 1993, shows that Emma has a job as waiter in small restaurant and Dexter starts his career by hosting a TV show. Emma is an independent woman, strong and has a big power to control her desire. She doesn't want to build any relationship with men because she only focuses with her career.

July, 15th Emma is teaching at a school while, Dexter is hosting a program called Late Night Lock. Based on his shows, Dexter becomes a headline in an article stating that Dexter is The Most Annoying Man on Telly. It can be seen that both of them have difference of exploring their career. She become a good teacher because of her drama production and Dexter is destroys his career because of his selfish attitude toward people around him, including Emma. Dexter broke his friendship with Emma because he usually underestimate Emma's job.

In 2000, Emma, alone, and Dexter with Sylvie, his future wife are attending a mutual college friends wedding. They meet and he gives Emma his wedding invitation. Emma can't believe a he is getting married and becoming a father. Emma then tells him that she has been given a modest advance to write a book. Dexter is very excited about it and proud of her skills. In 2001, Dexter and Sylvie already had one child but in the middle of the story shoes that Sylvie was cheating with Dexter's friend.

Moreover, in 2003, there is a big moment toward both of them. Emma has got her goals as a famous author and her career is getting better from time to time. While, Dexter has divorce with his wife and his career is going down. He becomes jobless and Emma becomes the one who help him to solve his problem. She finally married with Dexter and become the one who takes control over her husband. Moreover, in the middle of 2006, Emma is passed away because of crush accident. When she died, it shows that her presence has the biggest meaning for people around her. Dexter, as her husband becomes the one who struggle hardly to make his life better without Emma's presence.