Dear Eléonore,

Thank you again for the constructive comments on our paper. I hereby send you three documents: the latest version of our manuscript, a comparison document, and a summarized response on the reviewers.

If there are any uncertainties, please let me know.

Cordially,

Bart

Dear Bart,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript " A Post-Colonial Anthro-Political Comparative Study of Open Norms Reasonableness and Fairness in the Netherlands and Indonesia" to the ICCLJ. The editorial team and a group of expert reviewers have assessed your submission and feel that it has potential for publication, and so we would like to invite you to revise the paper and resubmit for further review.

We appreciate that your paper makes a useful contribution to the scholarly literature that is relevant for the ICCLJ and the comparison is well explained, but the narrative and presentation of the arguments require refinement in a number of places. Please see the attached reviewer comments for further details about necessary revisions.

We ask that you submit the revised version of your manuscript by responding to all the recipients of this message. Please note that you should submit both a clean version of the manuscript and one with track changes, as well as a separate document summarizing your responses to the reviewers' comments (i.e. 3 attachments altogether). We also ask that you ensure your revised manuscript is proofread by an English native speaker for any grammatical mistakes.

We kindly ask that you submit your revised manuscript by Monday 11 January 2021, after which point we will presume that you have withdrawn your submission from the ICCLJ. Please let us know if you need more time.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Kind regards,

Eléonore

Dear Bart,

Thank you very much for your submission to the International and Comparative Corporate Law Journal!

The editorial board has reviewed your submission and deemed your contribution to be very relevant for the journal. However, before proceeding to a peer-review process, we kindly ask that you address a couple of points in your manuscript:

1. Please check that your manuscript is in line with the authors guidelines (see attachment);
2. Please have the text proof-read by a native speaker: the grammar is very good but some formulations appear somewhat unclear and leave the reader wondering what you really meant;
3. Please revise the paragraph on pp. 8-9 that starts with "In the Baris vs Riezenkamp judgment...": the description is quite complicated and likely to be confusing to the reader;
4. Please check that the headings are adequate: e.g., heading 4 (The Netherlands) starts with a subheading that does not touch upon Dutch law or practice at all.

As soon as we receive a revised manuscript from you, we shall send it to the reviewers.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Dear Eléonore,

Thank you very much for your constructive comments! Yesterday we sent our manuscript to a British and a Canadian reviewer. We hope to get a corrected version back within a week. Your other instructions are clear. I hope to be able to send you a completely revised piece within two weeks.

Cordially,

Bart Jansen

Dear Bart,

Thank you very much for your revised manuscript. I shall now send it to the publisher and will get back to you shortly for checking proofs.

As this journal is currently published in paper version, we publish the abstract of all articles on SSRN as soon as the paper issue is out so that you can use that to promote your publication. Alternatively, you may do so yourself at any time. The full article will be added 6 months after the publication, but you will receive a PDF before that.

May I also ask that you and your co-authors send me a postal address to which you would like to receive the paper version of the ICCLJ issue?

Kind regards,

Eléonore
