ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Alhamdulillah Robbil Aalamiin. I would like to dedicate my deepest gratitude to Allah S.W.T., the Almighty who always gives me His blessings in passing all the times in my life, especially the hard time when I am writing this thesis. I am also thankful to my beloved mother and father for love and support they have given to me, for their praying to me, and for taking care of me until now on. You are the most precious persons in my life. I would also like to thank Lita, my sweet sister, and Abid, my attractive brother, for the love and the joyful moment I spent with you. I also give my gratitude for the rest of my families who were always there when I needed them.

I wish also to thank and express my great appreciation to my thesis advisor, Masitha A.S., M. Hum, for her input, editing, advise, great patience, and understanding that made it possible for me to accomplish this thesis. I would also like to thank all English department lecturers who have given me invaluable insights of these years.

My gratitude was also dedicated to all my friends in English Department 2010 especially for Fitri, Anik, Ami, Ria, Rara, Juju, Zeg and those whose names are not mentioned, for all the times we share. For the thesis fighters in this semester: Ephril, Mbak Ninis, Avika, Robby, and others, thank you for sharing the spirit to finish this thesis. The last but not least, my special thank given to my best roommates ever, Fafa and Afis, for sharing the wonderful and unforgotten experience. Their help and their huge support meant a lot to me. For Afis, thank you for borrowing me the cute wooden table until I finished this project. It was extremely helpful. Overall, I owe my gratitude to all of people supporting me to accomplish this thesis.
