ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Foremost, the writer would like to say gratitude to the Greatest Creator of all, Allah SWT, who has been given the writer strength, ability, and knowledge to write this bachelor thesis. Finally, the writer is able to finish this thesis with every possibility of difficulty and obstacle in the process of writing thesis.

The writer also would like to give gratitude and many thanks to her thesis advisor, Ms. Lilla Musyahda, whom always support continuously and help to assist and guide the writer to write the thesis to be done and corrected. Many thankful to other lecturers of AJ Sastra Inggris who always teach and give support to their students to get a better journey of life, either in academic or in society.

To the lecture trustee, Ms. Viki Ardaniah who always give her time to the writer in sharing and reporting everything without felt exhausted, and never stop to let her student graduate on time.

The last and not least, many gratitudes to my parents for always wanting the writer to finish the thesis immediately and support the writer with their most blessing prayer until the thesis has finished.

A thousand thanks for a friend who always help to the maximum capacity, Fika, and other four beautiful ladies who always support the writer to finish the thesis quickly. For AJ alumnae class 2012 friends, we have many beautiful days to be not forgotten and we have a super duper tired, happy, and memorable day as a student's of UA AJ Sasing'12.

Finally, the writer realizes that this thesis is far behind the perfection of good thesis writing. Therefore, this thesis may help the other students to find another problem of politeness strategies in various situations and still need to be investigated more in another level of study. Furthermore, the analysis of conversation in this situation may vary, not only from the scope of politeness strategies, but also from other theories which will find another perspective.
