ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It will never be easy to complete a thesis. I suffered when facing difficulties in the process of thesis writing, but I was also delighted with joyfulness when I finally finished the most challenging job in my life. At this moment, I am full of joy and thankfulness. Hereby, I would like to express my thankfulness to the God and people who give courage and support me in this tough process.

First of all, I would like to show my gratefulness and respect to my God in the name of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, praise to the Lord Jesus Christ. Thanks for Your blessing that You give to me, the strength during the process of doing this thesis and the amazing persons who always support me in many ways. Although I cannot see You by my eyes but my heart believes that Your guidance always lead my steps.

My deepest gratitude is dedicated to my advisor, Drs. Jurianto, M.Ed. who always spared his time to support and guide me. His thoughtful guidance and warming encouragement supported me to complete this thesis. Thanks for your patience, suggestion, and correction during consultation. I also felt an immense gratitude to Mr. Hari for his kindness to give me helpful suggestion on statistical calculation.

The next admiration is dedicated to my beloved parents and my brother. They are always there for me whenever I need them. Their love and encouragement keep me warm and lead me to the completion of the thesis.

Special thanks also go to my friends and classmates who are always with me and comfort me whenever I feel frustrated. Especially to my nine best friends “bul2”, Intania “ultramen”, Natalia Siska, Nurfiana Harsono, Nensy T., Septiana Arum, Ayu Ridho, Madyana, Isti Reski Ramadhan, and Rhima Puspita, I thank you for every moment we have spent together. You all always help me when there are a lot of difficulties and challenge which seem almost impossible to pass.

Finally, I thank to the members of S-32, Elka Ditya Wigati, Uri, Kuni, and others that I cannot mention one by one; they are like my second family. With their warming support, I believe that I will never be afraid of any difficulties anymore. Thank you for always reminding me to finish my thesis on time and were always with me in bad and happy times.

Education is, at least, the endeavor to get people to do things they could not previously do, to understand things they did not previously understand, and perhaps, to become the people they did not expect to become
