Taking a few simple steps to promote your research can help you to attract more citations, have a greater impact, and cultivate a stronger reputation.

1. Share your article across multiple social media platforms (such as Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, ResearchGate and Mendeley) via the right-hand sidebar on the article page. We encourage you to tag MDPI's corporate account (e.g., Twitter: @MDPIOpenAccess) and/or the specific journal account so that we can share and promote your article, when possible.
2. Share the article link with colleagues and peers in your field.
3. Add the paper link to your email signature.
4. Set up your profile on academic research-sharing platforms, such as SciProfiles, ResearchGate, Academia.edu, or Google Scholar, and add a short summary of your article.

More information and paper promotion tips can be found here: <https://www.mdpi.com/authors/promoting>.Thank you again for publishing your work with Infectious Disease Reports. Please do not hesitate to contact us if any questions or suggestions arise. We look forward to working with you in the future.

Kind regards,
