Acknowledgement

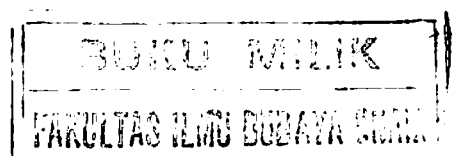

My foremost gratitude goes to my savior and my universe, Jesus Christ, because of His endless affection and amazing grace that I could be where I am now. It is also because of Him that I could finish my thesis and my study.

I would like to express my gratitude to my thesis adviser Rina Saraswati, M. Hum. Thank you for sharing the knowledge, experiences and brilliant ideas which are very useful for this study. She guides me patiently and persistently, without that this study would not have been possible. I also would like to ask her an apology for all my limitations which might detain the work of this thesis. With all my respect, I also would like to thank the board of lectures of English Department of Airlangga University for sharing me knowledge and experience.

The best wishes and gratitude are dedicated to my family, especially to my father and my mother for their support, understanding and prayer. And to my brother and my sister, Denny and Olla, who have been the most supportive siblings for me. The thanks also go to Eugenius Gusti Prananda, for all the attention and affection that guide me to a faith of conviction.

I must firstly recognize that I cannot mention all of the people who contributed in my study, therefore I will summarize it. Each day of my study in English Department will be a meaningless without the presence of these people:

My dearest friends; Tina Husnia, Septiana Prasetyowati, R. Yunita, Nita Liana, and Angger Alfi for the moments, laugh and love. My amazing thesis partner; Sheila Hapsari, Diah Permata, Dian Martia, Evi Triana, for the support and the unexpected moments of fun. My incredible friends; Aditya Nur Patria, Cecilia Deandra, Twyke Lala, and all the member of EDSA 2009, for the advices and helps. My inspiring senior who is now living peacefully in heaven, Mirza Arman Astoredjo, for all your advices and experiences that inspires me a lot. My beloved school friends, Agustina Ayu, Elizabeth Ita, and Maria Jane, for being such the best companion. Million thanks also to the whole reliable crew of Pink. Last but not least, my gratitude also goes to Gesang Manggala for the helps, advices, enlightenment and knowledge shared. May God give you the very best exchange.
