ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First, all praises to Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, the almighty God. Without His blessing, the writer would not have finished this thesis. The writer always believes that He always gives her the best things; then, now, and forever. Somehow, He shows the writer what is good, and what is not; when is good, and when is not; how is good, and how is not.

The writer is greatly indebted to Mr. Denny Arnos Kwary for his sincere assistance in accomplishing her thesis. Her deep appreciation would be for his patience in giving her the advice and support. The writer is grateful not only for his reviewing and correcting her thesis, but also for giving her suggestion, advice, and support about what to do with her life and her future as well as how to deal with it. They mean a lot to her. Some things the writer would like to say, 'Thank you Sir. You really are a great teacher and a great father as well'.

The writer dedicates her gratitude to the Board of Examiners and to all lecturers of the English Department, Faculty of Letters, Airlangga University, for their guidance during the academic years. Thank you for the advice and lectures. They have shaped the way the writer is now.

The writer also wants to say thank you to all the respondents. She is very thankful for the cooperation of the respondents, because without their cooperation, the writer will not be able to gain all the data and finish this thesis.

Her greatest gratitude would be to her beloved father and mother for their endless love. She really does appreciate their tremendous affection and care that make her the way she is now, strong enough, even when things seem worse to be faced. To thank them in words would never be enough. Words that the writer would like to say, 'Mom and Dad, at all times, in every possible way, I do love you. I am so proud to be your daughter. You are the best father and mother.' The writer also thanks to Lanang and Ari, her beloved brothers, for everything they have done together. To her grandparents, uncles, aunts, and cousins, the writer also wants to say thank you to all the respondents who make her finish this thesis.

For Bli Putu, the one the writer adores most, she would like to say, 'Thank you for the care, attention, love, time, spirit, support, advice, prayer, and help you gave to me. My "Prince", you are the reason I can finish this thesis. You are everywhere I go, and you are all I know. You make this come true. I will not forget the time we met, the moments we shared, and the dreams we have. Hope that someday we will have a bright future.'

The writer has many friends, thank God. But she is really sorry that she cannot mention all of their names here for her gratitude. All of them mean a lot to her. To her best friends: Pipit, Alice, and Maya, she wants to say, 'Thank you for being my best friends, especially in bad times.'

This page will not be enough to list everyone who makes her life so precious and colourful. So, she finally dedicates her gratitude to all people who are not listed here, and those who have given enormous contribution to accomplish this thesis. Thank you.

The Writer
