Dear Laksmi

Jonny Fajar has submitted this manuscript:

Association between convalescent plasma and the risk of mortality among patients with COVID-19: A meta-analysis

Shinta Wardhani et al. with Jonny Fajar as the corresponding author(s).

Funders: no grant funding was stated during submission.

Before accepting the article: we will check content suitability, readability and manuscript format; adherence to ethical standards for the type of study; that the underlying data have been supplied (where appropriate); and that there is sufficient detail to enable others to replicate the study (if applicable).

Before publishing the article: if we accept the article, we will be in touch with Jonny Fajar as soon as possible with any issues that need addressing and ask them for reviewer suggestions. They will then receive a final proof of the article for approval, prior to publication. At that stage, the peer review process will begin, in accordance with our publishing model.

After publication: to ensure you receive proper recognition for your professional activities, you can connect your ORCID iD to F1000Research so that all your F1000Research work is added to your account automatically once it is published. Details on how to do this will be sent in an email when the article is published.

All future correspondence about this submission will be sent to Jonny Fajar only. If you have not agreed to this submission and your inclusion as an author of this article, please contact us immediately quoting the article number: 36396.

Kind regards

The F1000Research Team
