ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All the praise is only for Allah SWT, God the Almighty. I am grateful for the endless blessings bestowed upon me that I could be what I am now. It is only because of His Power that I can finish this major duty of mine. Sholawat and salaam may always be upon the greatest Prophet Rasulullah SAW.

I am deeply grateful to Drs. Sumitro, as thesis advisor, for his time and patience in giving advice to me to work out this thesis. Special gratitude goes to Dra. Sumarto D., M.Ed., for her guidance. I also cannot thank enough that to all the lecturers of English Department of Airlangga University for everything they have taught me during my study there.

I am eternally indebted to my parents, Ir. Kuswadi, MM and Dra. Sri Hariani for the love and abundant attention that you have showered upon me until now. You are the reason of my courage to finish my work. And to my brothers Satya and Hendra, who is in Jakarta, thank you for being my inspiration; I will love you guys always.

My acknowledgment also goes to the 93-ers in EDUA: Win, Nilam, Ema, Dian, Hwee Fa, Eni, Agis, Layli, Zaitun; you are my old pals. For Devi Rachmasari, Wilimessy Sri Miradiani, and Dewi Meyrasyawati, thank you very much for being my best friends all through the changes in me, either in happiness or in sadness, in richer or poorer. Each of you has a special place in my heart. For Radex and Teti, thank you for curing my PC. And special thanks go to Mbak Dian Primita and M. Faried M. for sharing the information that guide me.

For Mbak Yanti and the gank at home, thanks for exchanging stories with me, sharing laughter, and listening to my cry for help. I love you, guys! Special greeting goes to my KKN-mates: Pipiet, Indri, and Iis: when will we gather again? I also send my best to my friends of C7YPIA: Rike Khristanti, thanks for being my best friend since our first chat and for the ride home; Bayu Wibisono, thanks for your being kind to me (don't ever be unkind to me!); Tri Lestari P., thanks for your 'innocent' attention to me; and the other guys, thanks for sharing the laughter every Wednesday in Miss Tria's class. And to Miss Triawati Dewi, thanks for giving me good marks and for your confide in me. I also express my gratitude to the family of Hj. A. Azis for giving me shelter for the last one month. And also thanks to my 'little, noisy sisters' in Karma 15: Echa, Lia, and Rusi for accompanying me during my 'exile', and to my favorite family: Mas Tito, Mbak Tri with Yayak and Tasya, thanks for the 'injection' of ink and courage.

Last but not least, I also express my thanks to everyone who has given me a hand when I really need it. I can never thank you enough. May Allah bless you.

I realize that this thesis is far from perfection. Therefore, I will accept every suggestion that may be helpful to make this work better.
