ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Writing this thesis is a good experience to the writer, even though she really realizes that she had her lowest low during the process. The lecturers in the Faculty of Letters especially in literature have supported her since the first joining the class till now in writing this thesis. Now the writer would like to give thanks to Jesus Christ her Lord, You gave her the strength so that she could finally accomplish this thesis.

The writer would like to give deep appreciation to her thesis advisor, Ms. Christinawati, Dra.M.Si, for her careful and detailed critical suggestion, comment and guidance during the completion of the thesis. One thing is she is very patient and punctual in her guidance. The writer also thanks to her very much. For Ms. Diah Ariani Arimbi, S.S., M.A., Ph. D, you are the first of the lecturers who gave the writer so many things to make the thesis rich starting from Literary Criticism, Method of Literary Research, Comparative Literature and Seminar class. The writer will never forget how she guided the students.

The writer's beloved family, her husband Antoni Pasaribu, who has inspired her for taking this class when moving from Jakarta to Surabaya. You said that education is very important. Thanks for supporting her and she will do her best in raising the children.

For her friends, who much younger than her but have given her great happiness, thank you for the friendship during the study in Airlangga.

The writer realizes this thesis is far from perfect. Therefore, she will be glad to accept constructive suggestion and criticism.
