ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Praise to Allah SWT, the Al-Mighty who owns all power beyond measure for without His merciful and grateful benevolence this thesis would not be accomplished.

The writer's words of appreciation go to Mr. Jurianto, M. Ed. as her thesis advisor who had been so patiently and carefully guiding the writer in doing her thesis. His suggestions had given much contribution and meant a lot to reach the best of her work.

The writer is also grateful to all English Department lecturers, who had come much lesson worthy to her knowledge and helped the writer to open her obscurity of English. Particular thanks go to Mrs. Christinawati for her kindness and trust to the writer. The writer would like to apologize for ever made her disappointed.

The writer deeply thanks her loving grandma for encouraging her to finish this thesis; to her dearest sister, Etik Julistiana and dearest brother, Handoko Apriyanto for their tolerance and sympathetic awareness during the time of the writer doing her thesis.

Eternal gratitude to the writer's love, drg. Ayik Sudiast Kristiawan for always being on the writer's side and providing his shoulder to cry on every time she was down. What he has done during the writer's up and down leaves the writer speechless.

The writer also thanks all of the respondents of this study, 96 and 97 students of English Department of Letters Faculty of Airlangga University who had provided their time to do the tasks given.

Special thanks go to Julia Indarti for lending her book, which was indeed the source of the writer's idea to conduct this study and to Sulis for taking over the writer's private classes during the finishing touch of her thesis.

The writer especially thanks to her best sharing partner, Nunuk, who always being a good listener and wise advisor to the writer.

The last but not meant least, Thanks to Yanti, Kifi, Kiwi, Upink, Uda, Diah, Uni, Ika and all 96 students the writer cannot mention each for laughter and togetherness they share with the writer. Keep in touch girls!.
