ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would express my deepest gratitude to the Almighty God, Allah SWT, for His blessings and His giving me patience and strength to overcome the difficulties while I am finishing my thesis.

I am being grateful also to :

1. S.E. Widjajati, Dra., M.S., my thesis advisor, for her guidance in showing me my weaknesses and suggesting some improvements at the same time.
2. All the teachers of English Department Airlangga University: Soemarto D, Dra., M.Ed., A. Rachman, Drs., Christinawati, Dra., Soemitro, Drs., Sudijah, Dra., Harlem N, Drs., Ita Farida, Dra., M.Hum., Diah Arimbi, Dra. and especially to Husein Shahab, Drs., who have given me the valuable knowledge.
3. My parents: mami and ayah, all my sisters, brother and the very cute Ditya for their love and tender.
4. My dear best friends: Mega, Yudia, Nana-ndut, Nita, Toyib and Mas Tatok for their aids and companion that I am never alone in both cry and laughter (because you are always there for me).

5. My dearest special friend: Benny Susatyo for his cruel support in waking me up from despair.
6. All the '92 students of English Department Airlangga University, especially Farid, Hari, Nana-wek, Ima, Esti and Yuni, for their friendship during my study together with them.
7. Others who have given me helps and support, directly and indirectly, so that I can finish my thesis.

This thesis analyzes Frederick Douglass' Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, emphasized on Douglass' effort to escape from slavery. However, as a human being with its limitations, I understand that this thesis is not perfect. It may have some weaknesses, indeed. So, I will be delighted to accept the critics and suggestions for the improvement of this thesis.
