Subject: Ensuring your article is REF 2021 - Compliant (UK-based authors only)

To: <puji.sucia@feb.unair.ac.id>

15-May-2019

Dear Hendratmi, Achsaniamhendratmi; Ryandono, Muhamad; sukmaningrum, puji,

The following email applies to UK-based authors only. If this does not apply to you, please discard this email.

The UK's higher education funding bodies have made final decisions on the operation of the next Research Excellence Framework process, REF2021 (<http://www.ref.ac.uk/>)

Articles accepted for publication after 1st April 2018 should be deposited as soon as possible but no later than three months after the acceptance date.*

If you are an author based at a UK research institution and wish to include this article in the next REF assessment, you will need to make a 'closed deposit' of your accepted article to your institutional repository (IR).

A 'closed deposit', as defined by the policy's deposit requirements, takes place when an Author Accepted Manuscript (AAM) and the surrounding metadata are deposited to the author's institutional repository (IR), with only the article's metadata visible in the IR until the relevant journal embargo period has expired.

Effective from September 2017, Emerald has removed the embargo period across all journals. The full text of the article may therefore become visible within your IR as soon as the final version has been published in the journal.

Please refer to the terms of your own institution to ensure full compliance.

The date your article was accepted for publication was: (15-May-2019)

To make your 'closed deposit', you will need to:

- Either, manually deposit the accepted manuscript attached to this email or a version from your own records (it must be the version accepted for publication by the journal's Editor) into your repository
- Or if applicable, forward your accepted manuscript to your institution's Repository Manager.
- If you are unsure which option is applicable to you, please refer to your institutional or departmental publication policy;

In both instances you will need to provide the following information:

- The article DOI (10.1108/JIMA-02-2019-0022);
- The article title ("DEVELOPING ISLAMIC CROWDFUNDING WEBSITE PLATFORM FOR STARTUP COMPANIES IN INDONESIA");
- The journal it will be appearing in (Journal of Islamic Marketing);
- The article abstract:

This study aims to develop an Islamic crowdfunding model based on a website platform for startup companies. Apart from reviewing related literature, specifically focus group discussion with 16 CEO of Startup Companies, in-depth interview with two crowdfunding provider, Fiqh expert and Technology Platform Expert for the development of an Islamic crowdfunding website platform for startup companies.

The concept of Islamic crowdfunding is recommended as a funding solution for startup companies. Therefore, it was deemed crucial for this study to develop an Islamic crowdfunding model based on a website platform as a form of innovative acceleration to provide alternative funding for a startup company, which subsequently expands to a growing and sustainable business. Furthermore, the use of a website platform for the operation of crowdfunding mechanism is deemed as an effective means to link cross-geographical investors with the startup company owners in Indonesia, specifically East Java.

Islamic Crowdfunding website platform can be the solution for startup companies to obtain capital funds while startup companies are not able to provide collateral to attain financial assistance and experience problems. Expectedly, the government should provide legality, regulation, licensing, and socialization matters pertaining to crowdfunding in order to obtain legal legality from the country.

There is still no research to develop the Islamic crowdfunding model using a website platform. This study was expected to provide essential insights on the effective development of an Islamic crowdfunding website platform integrated with startup companies, investors, and sharia committee.

Please note that the full text of the AAM must only appear in the IR once the final version of the article has been published in the journal.

If you have any questions about Emerald's repository policy and how to make a 'closed deposit', please contact permissions@emeraldinsight.com

For more information on REF 2021 policy, please see: <http://www.ref.ac.uk/>

Thank you for choosing to publish with Emerald, I hope this guidance will help ensure that your work is eligible for REF 2021 inclusion.

Kind Regards,
Laura Wilson
Head of Rights, Emerald Publishing

* The UK's funding bodies have since agreed to an exception for those unable to meet the deposit timescale detailed above. As of 1st April 2018, articles deposited up to three months after publication will remain compliant. The exception will read: 'The output was not deposited within three months of acceptance date, but was deposited within three months of the earliest date of publication.' This exception will remain in place for the rest of the REF 2021 publication period. For more information, please see <https://www.ref.ac.uk>
