Elida Zairina:

this is an automated email to confirm that it appears that we have received your revised manuscript "A randomised controlled trial evaluating the effectiveness of education session by pharmacists in patients with asthma: study protocol" for JMIR Research Protocols.

We have not reviewed the uploaded file and trust that it is the revised version, and that you have copied & pasted your point-by-point responses to the editor and reviewers into the notification email to the editor. We also encourage authors to upload their responses to reviewers as supplementary file, as well as a tracked changes version of the manuscript file (you can still do this at this point).

With the online journal management system that we are using, you will be able to track its progress through the editorial process by logging in to the journal web site:

Manuscript URL: <http://www.researchprotocols.org/author/submission/10210>

Username: elida-z

Note that we cc all coauthors on editorial communications, but only the submitting author can see the manuscript online and upload or download files. Please make sure we have the correct email addresses of all co-authors on file. PLEASE ENTER ALL CO-AUTHORS IN THE METADATA FORM IF YOU HAVEN'T DONE SO ALREADY.

Thank you very much for giving us the opportunity to re-review your work.

If you have any questions, please search our FAQ (e.g. <https://jmir.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/articles/115003611427>) or contact us at support@jmir.org or the editor.

Thank you for considering this journal as a venue for your work.

Melissa Chan has added a comment to the submission, "The Efficacy of an Education Session by Pharmacists for Patients With Asthma: Protocol and Design of a Randomized Controlled Trial" in JMIR Research Protocols:

If you are the author of this manuscript, you can respond by going to the editing page of your manuscript [<https://www.researchprotocols.org/author/submissionEditing/10210>] and click the small icon next to "Proofreading Corrections" at the very bottom of the page.

START OF COMMENT:

Dear Authors,

We still have not received any confirmation regarding whether or not you require any corrections to the text. Again, note that this is a requirement in order to proceed to publication.

Please respond to our queries as soon as possible so that we can schedule your article for publication.

Melissa Chan
Production Assistant

START OF COMMENT:

Hi Elida,

All corrections have been acknowledged/made as requested. Note that the Figure 1 you uploaded still had the red spellcheck indicator under "etc". I have since removed them.

We do have one more query: can you please confirm that the n values in Figure 1, under "Excluded", "Follow-up", and "Analysis" are intended to be empty?

Thank you,

Melissa
