Please read the following instructions carefully before proofreading:

1) Download the manuscript from the link provided at the end of this message and upload the final proofed version via the second link. If you experience any difficulties, please contact the Behavioral Sciences Editorial Office.

2) Please use Microsoft Word's built-in track changes function to highlight any changes you make, or send a comprehensive list of changes in a separate document. Note that this is the last chance to make textual changes to the manuscript. Some style and formatting changes may have been made by the production team, please do not revert these changes.

3) All authors must agree to the final version. Check carefully that authors' names and affiliations are correct, and that funding sources are correctly acknowledged. Incorrect author names or affiliations are picked up by indexing databases, such as the Web of Science or PubMed, and can be difficult to correct.

After proofreading, final production will be carried out. Note that changes to the position of figures and tables may occur during the final steps. Changes can be made to a paper published online only at the discretion of the Editorial Office.

Please take a moment to check that everything is correct. You can reply to this email if there is a problem. If any errors are noticed, please note that all authors must follow MDPI's policy on updating published papers, found here: <https://www.mdpi.com/ethics#16>.

To encourage open scientific discussions and increase the visibility of published articles, MDPI recently implemented interactive commenting and recommendation functionalities on all article webpages (side bar on the right). We encourage you to forward the article link to your colleagues and peers.

We encourage you to set up your profile at www.SciProfiles.com, MDPI's researcher network platform. Articles you publish with MDPI will be linked to your SciProfiles page, where colleagues and peers will be able to see all of your publications, citations, as well as your other academic contributions. Please also feel free to send us feedback on the platform that we can improve it quickly and make it useful for scientific communities.

You can also share the paper on various social networks by clicking the links on the article webpage. Alternatively, our Editorial Office can post an announcement of your article on our Twitter channel, please send us a text of up to 200 characters with spaces. Please note that our service Scitations.net will automatically notify authors cited in your article. For further paper promotion guidelines, please refer to the following link:

We would be happy to keep you updated about new issue releases of behavsci. Please enter your e-mail address in the box at <https://www.mdpi.com/journal/behavsci/toc-alert/> to receive notifications. After issue release, a version of your paper including the issue cover will be available to download from the article abstract page.

To order high quality reprints of your article in quantities of 25-1000, visit: <https://www.mdpi.com/2076-328X/12/8/272/reprints>

We support the multidisciplinary preprint platform /Preprints/, which permanently archives full text documents and datasets of working papers in all subject areas. Posting on the platform is entirely free of charge, and full details can be viewed at <http://www.preprints.org>.

We are dedicated to providing an outstanding publishing service, and we invite you to complete our author satisfaction survey <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/authorfeedbackmdpi>. The survey contains 20 short questions and will only take a couple of minutes to complete.

To help us improve our Production and English editing service, provided as part of MDPI's editorial process, please take a few minutes to participate in the following survey: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/38TKGWF> (for Production and English editing service).

Thank you for choosing Behavioral Sciences to publish your work, we look forward to receiving further contributions from your research group in the future.

Kind regards,

Dear Authors,

Congratulations! Your manuscript has been published in Behavioral Sciences.

Thank you for choosing our journal. Your article is already available, open access, to everyone free of charge via the journal website. Promoting your work is an important part of the post-publication process which will increase the visibility, impact and citation of your work. We encourage you to promote and share your article widely.

We have some tips about what you can do to promote your article here:

<https://www.mdpi.com/authors/promoting>

To promote discoverability, views and downloads, you can:

(1) Social Media

- Share your article on various social networks, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Mendeley and Twitter by clicking the link on the webpage of your article. Tagging @MDPIOpenAccess as well as key people in your field might lead to retweets: Your publication may become viral on social media!
- Send a short text (up to 200 characters) to the MDPI assistant editor who was your contact for the publication of your manuscript, who will then post it on the journal Twitter account.
- Write a blog post to explain the meaning and possible outcomes of your research. This will lead to higher engagement of your research community. Ask your institution or society to post your paper on their social media accounts and to include a story about your paper in their newsletters.

(2) Link Share

- Share the article link directly with colleagues and peers in your field.
- Add a link to your article in your email signature.
- Update your personal and institutional websites by adding the title of your article and a link to it.

(3) Academic Research-sharing Platforms

- Set up your profile on academic research-sharing platforms, such as SciProfiles, ResearchGate, Academia.edu or Google Scholar, and add a short summary of your article.
- Register an ORCID author identifier and add the article information to your profile.
- Deposit your article in repositories (such as those run by your university) to make your research more discoverable.

(4) Conferences

- Present your publication at conferences in the form of a presentation or a poster. You may participate in conferences relevant for your field organized by MDPI on Sciforum.net.

Please keep up with any journal updates and news via our LinkedIn page (<https://www.linkedin.com/company/behavioral-sciences-mdpi/>).
