Manuscript. Number.: HELIYON-D-22-10361

Title: The Nexus between Islamic Social Finance, Quality of Human Resource, Governance, and Poverty

Journal: Heliyon

Dear Dr. Widiastuti,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon. We have completed the review of your manuscript and a summary is appended below. The reviewers recommend major revisions are required before publication can be considered. If you are able to address all reviewer comments in full, I invite you to resubmit your manuscript. We ask that you respond to each reviewer comment by either outlining how the criticism was addressed in the revised manuscript or by providing a rebuttal to the criticism.

This should be carried out in a point-by-point fashion as illustrated here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/guide-for-authors#Revisions>.

To allow the editors and reviewers to easily assess your revised manuscript, we also ask that you upload a version of your manuscript highlighting any revisions made. You may wish to use Microsoft Word's Track Changes tool or, for LaTeX files, the latexdiff Perl script (<https://ctan.org/pkg/latexdiff>). To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder.

Your revision due date is Sep 11, 2022. We understand that the COVID-19 pandemic may well be causing disruption for you and your colleagues. If that is the case for you and it has an impact on your ability to make revisions to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please reach out to us. I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Kind regards,

Yating Zhang

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Reviewer 2: Methods: The paper used a well known methodology, which is appropriate for the selected research questions.

Results: The results are interesting.

Interpretation: It is best to also include a discussion and interpretation of the key estimated coefficients.

Other comments: While the manuscript does make a reasonably strong contribution to the existing literature, the paper is poorly written and definitely needs serious editing. It is best to refer to policy variables in hypotheses. For example, mentioning that CPI makes a positive contribution to anything is uninteresting.

Reviewer 3: Methods: The methodological approach is utterly appropriate. However, I recommend a number of improvements:

.pg.7, explain, briefly, the adoption of the fixed effects mode

.pg.8, explain why the 20% ponderation beyond the obvious, i.e., using 5 indicators;

.pg. 10, explain the reason behind such a high number of different models, 15 in total

.an explanation why the impact of being an oil exporter is not included in the analysis, or, to what extent, other variables make up for it

Results: Logical and in line with the methodological approach. Why not to explore the random effects approach?

Interpretation: Consistent and coherent with the main results. The discussion and conclusions ascertain the main idea behind the study.

Other comments: No other major issues.
