Dear Mr. Pantouw:

Your manuscript entitled "Depression Screening in Surabaya Indonesia: Urgent Need for Better Mental Health Care for High-risk Communities and Suicide Prevention for Men" has been successfully submitted online and is presently being given full consideration for publication in International Journal of Social Psychiatry.

Your manuscript ID is ISP-20-0347.

You have listed the following individuals as authors of this manuscript:
Maramis, Margarita M.; Pantouw, Jakobus Gerick; Lesmana, Cokorda

Please mention the above manuscript ID in all future correspondence or when calling the office for questions. If there are any changes in your street address or e-mail address, please log in to ScholarOne Manuscripts at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ijpspsych> and edit your user information as appropriate.

You can also view the status of your manuscript at any time by checking your Author Center after logging in to <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ijpspsych>.

As part of our commitment to ensuring an ethical, transparent and fair peer review process SAGE is a supporting member of ORCID, the Open Researcher and Contributor ID (<https://orcid.org/>). We encourage all authors and co-authors to use ORCID iDs during the peer review process. If you have not already logged in to your account on this journal's ScholarOne Manuscripts submission site in order to update your account information and provide your ORCID identifier, we recommend that you do so at this time by logging in and editing your account information. In the event that your manuscript is accepted, only ORCID iDs validated within your account prior to acceptance will be considered for publication alongside your name in the published paper as we cannot add ORCID iDs during the Production steps. If you do not already have an ORCID iD you may login to your ScholarOne account to create your unique identifier and automatically add it to your profile.

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to International Journal of Social Psychiatry.

Sincerely,
Liam Morton

Publish Ahead of Print with OnlineFirst

OnlineFirst is a feature by which completed articles are published online prior to their inclusion in a print issue, offering authors the advantage of making their research accessible to the public in a more timely manner.* Each OnlineFirst manuscript is citable by the publication date of the manuscript's first online posting and the Digital Object Identifier (DOI), providing a permanent way to identify manuscripts published in the online environment. You can cite OnlineFirst articles as follows:

Author's last name, first initials. Depression screening in Surabaya Indonesia: Urgent need for better mental health care for high-risk communities and suicide prevention for men. International Journal of Social Psychiatry. Prepublished month day, year; DOI: 10.1177/0020764020957359

Once your article has completed the production process and before it is published in a print issue, it will be posted online. You can access ISP OnlineFirst articles on the Web at <http://isp.sagepub.com/pap.dtl>. Once posted online, articles may not be retracted or edited.

*Online subscribers and those who pay for pay-per-view access can view these PDFs in their entirety; abstracts are available to the public to view for free. OnlineFirst articles are fed to search engines and citation and content repositories, such as PubMed, MEDLINE, CrossRef, and Google Scholar, and therefore are available to be accessed and cited.
